

Japan's evacuation zone extended

The no-go zone imposed around Japan's stricken Fukushima Daiichi nuclear plant has been extended to areas affected by radiation hot spots.

In addition to 70,000 people who have already left the 20km zone, a further 120,000 people have been advised to evacuate within a month

