

Sunday, March 6

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1941: U.S. sculptor Gutzon Borglum died. He is famed for his carvings on Mount Rushmore of the heads of four U.S. Presidents

1899: The headache relief drug Aspirin was patented by German chemist Felix Hoffmann

1937: Russian cosmonaut Valentina Tereshkova, who became the first woman in space in 1963, was born

1964: King Constantine II succeeded to the throne of Greece

2010: Icelanders rejected a plan to pay 3.8 billion euros to Britain and the Netherlands as compensation for the collapse of Icesave bank