

Tuesday, March 22

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1888: The English Football League was founded in London

1903: The American side of Niagara Falls ran short of water due to a drought

1943: Almost the entire population of the village of Katyn in present-day Belarus was massacred by Nazi troops; 149 died, only five survived

1992: Democratic elections in Albania ended 45 years of Communist rule

2007: Pakistani cricketers were questioned by police in Jamaica investigating the sudden death of team coach Bob Woolmer, then being treated as a case of murder