

Monday, March 28

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1985: Russian-born painter Marc Chagall died in Saint-Paul de Vence, France, at the age of 97

1483: Renaissance master Raphael was born Raffaello Santi in Urbino, Italy

1939: Madrid fell to Franco's forces, ending the Spanish Civil War

1979: A meltdown in a reactor at Three Mile Island in Pennsylvania caused the worst commercial nuclear accident in the United States

2010: Israeli President Shimon Peres said he believed the administration of Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu had gone too far with its building plans in East Jerusalem