

Friday, April 15

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2010: Kyrgyzstan's President Kurmanbek Bakiyev officially resigned and left the country a week after he was ousted by popular protests in the capital, Bishkek

1469: Nanak, the Indian spiritual teacher who founded Sikhism, was born near Lahore

1955: McDonald's opened its first hamburger restaurant in California

1986: U.S. bombers attacked targets in Libya, killing over 100 people including Col. Gaddafi's adopted baby daughter

2010: Former Israeli premier Ehud Olmert was named as a key suspect in a major corruption scandal