

Tuesday, May 3

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2010: Pakistani Ajmal Kasab, 22, the only surviving terrorist from the Mumbai attacks of 2008, was found guilty of murder and conspiracy and later sentenced to death

1660: The king of Poland abandoned his claim to the Swedish throne

1808: The first duel fought from hot air balloons took place above Paris

1939: Vyacheslav Molotov replaced Maxim Litvinov as Soviet Foreign Minister

2010: American air carriers United and Continental announced a merger deal worth $3.2 billion, creating the world's largest airline