

Saturday, May 28

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2008: Engineers announced that Italy's famous Leaning Tower of Pisa had stopped moving for the first time in its 800-year history

1742: The first indoor swimming pool in England opened in London

1937: Austrian psychiatrist Alfred Adler, who introduced the concept of the "inferiority complex", died

1958: The U.S. government approved statehood for Alaska

2010: Suspected Maoist rebels in eastern India derailed the overnight Kolkata to Mumbai passenger train, triggering a crash with an oncoming cargo train that killed 148 people