

Sunday, May 29

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2009: Legendary U.S. music producer Phil Spector was jailed for 19 years for the murder of an actress at his California home in 2003

1900: The Otis company officially registered its Escalator trademark

1917: John F. Kennedy, later the 35th U.S. President, was born

1979: Bishop Abel Muzorewa was sworn in as the first black prime minister of Zimbabwe-Rhodesia

2010: Thai Prime Minister Abhisit Vejjajiva lifted a curfew in Bangkok but retained the state of emergency imposed after two months of "Red Shirt" protests that killed 90 people