

Tuesday, June 7

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1973: Willy Brandt was the first West German leader to visit Israel

1494: Spain and Portugal signed the Treaty of Tordesillas, agreeing to divide the New World between themselves

1929: The Papal State was revived for the first time since 1870 when the Vatican was established in Rome

1942: The Battle of Midway came to an end, inflicting on Japan its first major naval defeat of the Second World War

2010: U.S. military analyst Bradley Manning, 22, was arrested on suspicion of leaking classified combat video and documents to the whistle-blowing website WikiLeaks