

Friday, June 17

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1823: Charles Macintosh patented the waterproof cloth he was to use for making raincoats

1885: The Statue of Liberty, a gift from the people of France, arrived in New York City aboard the French ship Isere

1925: The Geneva Protocol, banning the use of poisonous gases in war, was signed by 29 countries

1982: General Leopoldo Galtieri resigned as president of Argentina following defeat in the Falklands War

2009: Peru's government revoked land laws that resulted in deadly clashes with indigenous protesters in the Amazon