

New cocaine trafficking routes in Africa

Drug cartels from South America have moved into West Africa, opening up new routes for transporting cocaine from Colombia, Peru and Bolivia to the consumers of Europe, particularly Britain and Spain

Production (tonnes, 2008)

Consumption (tonnes, 2008)

