

RUGBY World Cup venues

New Zealand has spent almost NZ$550 million (U.S. $387m) building or upgrading 12 stadia, the majority going on the $240m redevelopment of Auckland's Eden Park and Dunedin's newly-built $198m Otago Stadium

EDEN PARK

Hosts first match, Final and nine other games

New three-tier South stand with ETFE "cushion" facade

New three-tier East stand

NEW ZEALAND

Whangarei

Northland Events Centre
Capacity 18,000

Hamilton

Waikato Stadium
30,000

Rotorua

International Stadium 26,000

New Plymouth

Stadium Taranaki 26,000

Palmerston North

Arena Manawatu
15,000

South Island

Nelson

Trafalgar Park
18,000

Blenheim

Hammer Springs

Christchurch (scheduled matches relocated following earthquake)

Ashburton

Dunedin

Otago Stadium 30,000

Invercargill

Rugby Park 17,000

North Island

Auckland

North Harbour 30,000
Eden Park 60,000

Tauranga

Taupo

Gisborne

Napier

McLean Park
15,000

Masterton

Wellington

Wellington Regional Stadium
40,000

TASMAN SEA

Queenstown

PACIFIC OCEAN

Stewart Island

Match venue

Training base