

Who's who in News of the World scandal

Rupert Murdoch
Chairman and CEO of News Corporation
News Corp is trying to win British government approval for $14bn deal to buy remaining 60% of BSkyB

James Murdoch
Murdoch's son is in charge of European operations of News Corp. Defended Rebekah Brooks after growing calls for her resignation

Rebekah Brooks
Chief executive of News International
Editor of News of the World from 2000-03. Confirmed in 2003 that newspaper paid police for information

Andy Coulson
Editor of News of the World from 2003-07. Chief press officer of Prime Minister David Cameron 2007-11. Arrested July 8 over hacking scandal

Clive Goodman
Former News of the World reporter covering royal family. Convicted and jailed in 2007 for hacking into mobile phones of royal household

Glenn Mulcaire
Private investigator who helped Goodman hack into phones. Kept notes that implicated others at paper. Jailed for his role in hacking royals

