

Libya rebels march on southern Gaddafi base

Libyan opposition fighters have opened a new front in the war against Colonel Muammar Gaddafi, advancing hundreds of kilometres across the country's southern desert towards the key stronghold of Sebha

● Gaddafi-held ● Rebel-held ☀ Clashes —● Oilfield / pipeline

Zlitan: Heavy fighting as rebel forces push forward from Misrata to within 1.5km of government-held town, blocking advance on Tripoli

Brega: Rebels claim they have ousted most of Gaddafi's forces and are in control of strategic oil town

