

Moody's warns Greek default almost certain

Credit rating agency Moody's has downgraded Greece's bond ratings by a further three notches and warned that it is almost inevitable the country will be considered to be in default following last week's new bailout package

MOODY'S CREDIT RATING
EU members

