

Attacks threaten Israel's gas security

Militants have struck Egypt's East Mediterranean Gas (EMG) pipeline, cutting supplies to Israel for the fifth time this year. Israel buys 4.8 million cubic metres of gas per day – about 45% of its needs – through EMG

