

Women's U.S. Open champions

Injury will prevent Kim Clijsters from defending her title of the last two years. She also missed the tournament from 2006-8, so remains unbeaten at Flushing Meadows since first winning the trophy in 2005

RECENT U.S. OPEN CHAMPIONS

2010	Kim Clijsters BEL	6-2, 6-1
	Vera Zvonareva RUS
2009	Kim Clijsters BEL	7-5, 6-3
	Caroline Wozniacki DEN
2008	Serena Williams USA	6-4, 7-5
	Jelena Jankovic SRB
2007	Justine Henin BEL	6-1, 6-3
	Svetlana Kuznetsova RUS
2006	Maria Sharapova RUS	6-4, 6-4
	Justine Henin BEL

MOST TITLES (Open Era)

Chris Evert	USA	1975, 76, 77, 78, 80, 82	6
Steffi Graf	GER	1988, 89, 93, 95, 96	5
Martina Navratilova	USA	1983, 84, 86, 87	4
Margaret Court	AUS	3 1969, 70, 73
Billie Jean King	USA	3 1971, 72, 74
Serena Williams	USA	3 1999, 2002, 08
Kim Clijsters	BEL	3 2005, 09, 10

American players account for 21 U.S. Open titles since 1968 – over four times that of any other country

GRAND SLAMS IN 2011: Three different winners to date

Australian Open	Roland Garros	Wimbledon
Kim Clijsters Belgium	Li Na China	Petra Kvitova Czech Rep.