

Anwar al-Awlaki killed

■ 1971: Born to Yemeni parents in U.S. state of New Mexico. Returns to Yemen at age seven

■ 1991: Returns to U.S. to gain degree in civil engineering from Colorado State University, and master's in education at San Diego

■ 1994-2002: Preaches at mosques in Denver, San Diego, and Falls Church, Virginia. Two of those mosques attended by three 9/11 hijackers

■ 2002: Moves to UK, where he gives popular lectures to Muslim youths

■ 2004: Returns to Yemen, lecturing in religious school in Sanaa headed by cleric Abdul-Majid al-Zindani – named by U.S. as a terrorist

■ 2006: Detained on charges relating to plot to kidnap U.S. military attache

■ 2007: Released but later charged on similar counts – goes into hiding

■ Apr 2010: Only U.S. citizen named on CIA hit list

■ May: Faisal Shahzad – U.S. citizen of Pakistani origin who tried to bomb Times Square – says he was inspired by Awlaki

■ Oct: U.S. links Awlaki – “figurehead” of al-Qaeda in Arabian Peninsula – to plot to send bombs as cargo on planes to synagogues in Chicago

■ Nov: UK student Roshonara Choudhry – radicalised by Awlaki’s internet sermons – jailed for stabbing MP who supported Iraq war

■ Sep 30, 2011: Yemen defence ministry says Awlaki has been killed in Yemen along with several of his associates

■ Nov 2009: Major Nidal Malik Hasan – U.S. Army psychiatrist said to have received religious advice from Awlaki – kills 13 people at Fort Hood base in Texas

■ Dec: U.S. says Umar Farouk Abdulmutallab – Nigerian accused of attempting to blow up airliner over Detroit on Christmas Day – was recruited by Awlaki in Yemen

