

Gaddafi killed as Sirte falls to NTC forces

Col. Muammar

Gaddafi (68).

Ruler for 42 years, has vowed to remain in Libya until death.

Oct 20: Gaddafi reportedly captured and killed while trying to flee Sirte

Safia Farkash:

Gaddafi's second wife and mother of seven of his children. Couple also adopted two children, Milad and Hanna. Aug 29: Flees with family members to Algeria

Ayesha (35). Lawyer. Gives birth to fourth child in clinic in Algerian border town hours after crossing frontier from Libya

Saif al-Islam (39).

Perceived as Gaddafi's successor. Wanted by ICC on charges of alleged torture and killing of civilians

Hannibal (35). Head of state shipping company has history of violence – arrested in Paris in 2005 and Geneva in 2008 on assault charges

Khamis (28). 32nd Brigade commander implicated in Aug 23 massacre of 150 prisoners. Aug 29: Killed in airstrike

Mohammed (41). Only child of Gaddafi's first marriage. Head of state-run telecoms company. Loyalist forces helped him flee house arrest

Saif al-Arab (29).

Student in Munich. Returned to Libya in February. Apr 30: Killed in strike on Gaddafi's compound in Tripoli

Saadi (38). Former footballer who had brief career in Italy's Serie A. Sep 11: Niger says Saadi has crossed border from Libya

Mutassim (36).

Playboy boasts of spending $2 million per month on lavish lifestyle. Oct 20: Killed resisting capture in Sirte

Milad (age unknown). Little is known about adopted son credited with saving Gaddafi's life during U.S. bombing of Tripoli in 1986

Hanna (29). Gaddafi claimed his adopted daughter was killed in 1986 airstrike. Evidence found in Tripoli indicates she is alive