

Turkey quake traps scores

Rescue teams are searching for dozens of people trapped in rubble after a 5.6-magnitude earthquake struck eastern Turkey, killing at least seven people. Last month, a 7.2-magnitude quake killed 600 people in the same area

Wednesday, 19:23GMT: Quake strikes 16km south of Van, destroying twenty-five buildings – including six-storey hotel