

Libya says Gaddafi son to be tried at home

Libya's new leaders have said they will try Saif al-Islam Gaddafi at home and not hand him over to the International Criminal Court where he is charged with crimes against humanity. The government also announced the capture of the toppled regime's spy chief, also wanted by the court

▲ Saif al-Islam Gaddafi
Second son and heir apparent of former Libyan leader was captured in desert town of Awbari on Saturday by fighters from Zintan tribe. Now held at secret location in Zintan

◀ Abdullah al-Senoussi: Gaddafi regime's intelligence chief arrested by revolutionary fighters on Sunday at his sister's house in Deerat al-Shati, about 70km south of Sebha

Charges: ICC indicted both men along with Gaddafi in June for crimes against humanity. Both face death penalty if convicted in Libya