Suu Kyi to run for seat in Myanmar parliament Burmese opposition leader Aung San Suu Kyi will stand as a parliamentary candidate after her National League for Democracy voted to rejoin politics in the former military dictatorship. The NLD boycotted a 2010 election but recent reforms are moving the country away from authoritarianism

Results annulled by military junta, now recognized by new government 392.

Reserved for *USDP 129 military 56 Others

Pyithu Hluttaw

will be contested in

by-elections for two military 110

houses of parliament

(Lower House) - 440 seats Reserved for USDP 259

150km

95 miles

Others

*President Thein Sein's Union Solidarity and Development Party

Source: SSRC Picture: Getty Images © GRAPHIC NEWS

. 39