

Police, protesters clash for 5th day in Egypt

Clashes are continuing between anti-government protesters and police near Tahrir Square in Cairo as tens of thousands of demonstrators rejected a promise by Egypt's military ruler to speed up a presidential election to the first half of next year

-  Main area of protests
-  Main area of clashes between police and protesters

