

Pakistan closes NATO Afghan supply route

Pakistan has closed the Khyber Pass supply route for troops fighting in Afghanistan after NATO helicopters attacked a military post near the Afghan border, killing 28 personnel. Islamabad says it will now review all diplomatic, military and intelligence cooperation with NATO

