

Evoque tackles tough terrain in style

The Range Rover Evoque is the smallest, lightest, most fuel-efficient vehicle Land Rover has ever built. Scoring five stars in Euro NCAP crash tests, the Evoque features liquid metal dampers and a dual-view display

Engines: 2.2-litre turbodiesel eD4
2-litre turbocharged petrol Si4

Panoramic glass roof with power blinds

Composite plastic,
one-piece tailgate

Lightweight aluminium
hood and roof panels

Wheelbase: 2,660mm

Ability to ford 500mm of water, 25 degree approach angle, 210mm ground clearance

MagneRide: Magnetically controlled suspension

Dual-view touch screen: Shows different images to driver and passenger. Driver can view sat-nav while passenger watches movie

Screen displays fuel levels, gear, terrain mode, cruise control

Electric power steering

Six-speed automatic transmission

Front-wheel drive: eD4 boasts fuel economy of 57.6mpg (5.0L/100km), CO₂ emissions of 130g/km