

Murdoch hacking damages disclosed

Rupert Murdoch's News Group Newspapers agreed to pay damages to 37 high-profile victims of tabloid phone-hacking, including actor Jude Law, and former British Deputy Prime Minister John Prescott

Jude Law: Phone was hacked repeatedly between 2003 and 2006

Lord Prescott: Placed under surveillance by News of the World

15 awards disclosed at London's High Court reached a total of £645,000
22 awards were settled but not revealed

Jude Law	£130,000	Ciara Parkes – publicist	£35,000
HJK – anonymous victim	£60,000	Denis MacShane – former Labour minister	£32,500
Sadie Frost – designer	£50,000	Chris Bryant – Labour MP	£30,000
Ben Jackson – Law's PA	£40,000	Lisa Gower – former girlfriend of Steve Coogan	£30,000
Guy Pelly – businessman and friend of Prince William	£40,000	Joan Smith – journalist and MacShane's ex-partner	£27,500
Gavin Henson – ex-partner of Charlotte Church	£40,000	Tom Rowland – freelance journalist	£25,000
John Prescott	£40,000	Graham Shear – solicitor	£25,000
Joan Hammell – John Prescott's chief of staff	£40,000		