

Syrian troops intensify shelling of Homs

Syrian government forces have stepped up their deadly attack on Homs – which opposition activists say has killed more than 300 people – given fresh impetus by Russia and China's refusal to condemn the Assad regime's brutal crackdown

Fighting also reported in Aleppo and Zabadani – reportedly under opposition control for weeks

Rebel-held areas under attack

Feb 4-5, Khalidiya: Over 200 killed by tank, artillery bombardment

Feb 6, 3:00am: Attack recommences

Feb 6, Bayada: Artillery and fire from helicopters

Feb 6, Baba Amr: Makeshift clinic hit by shelling

Bab Dreib

