

Highs and lows of Harry Redknapp

- 1947: Born March 2 in Poplar, east London
- 1958: Trainee at Tottenham Hotspur
- 1965: Turns professional with West Ham Utd, alongside England's World Cup-winning captain Bobby Moore
- 1982: Appointed Bournemouth manager – loses first match 9-0 but wins Third Division title in 1987
- 1990: Survives serious car accident in Italy

■ 1994: Takes over at West Ham, nurturing young talent including nephew Frank Lampard, Rio Ferdinand and Jermain Defoe

■ 2001: Sacked after row with chairman. Appointed Director of Football at Portsmouth by chairman Milan Mandaric

■ 2002: Becomes manager – Portsmouth win Division One title

■ 2004: Joins local rivals Southampton – relegated at end of season

■ 2005: Returns to Portsmouth, then struggling in Premier League

■ 2006: BBC broadcasts investigation into corruption in football but independent inquiry finds nothing to incriminate Redknapp

■ 2007: Redknapp and Mandaric arrested on suspicion of tax fraud. Released without charge, police pay damages for raid on Redknapp's home

■ 2008: Portsmouth wins FA Cup

■ 2008: Joins Tottenham – leads team from foot of table to Carling Cup final

■ 2010: Redknapp charged with tax fraud

■ 2011: Spurs reach quarter-finals of UEFA Champions League

■ Feb 8, 2012: Redknapp and Mandaric acquitted. England coach Fabio Capello resigns – Redknapp is favourite for top job

