

Netanyahu forms Israeli unity government

Benjamin Netanyahu's surprise deal with Israel's main opposition party hands the Prime Minister an overwhelming majority in parliament and secures his position ahead of domestic and foreign policy challenges, including a possible conflict with Iran

Netanyahu: Deal may help Likud leader to tackle controversial law exempting most members of ultra-Orthodox Jewish community from military service

Shaul Mofaz: Kadima leader, former defence minister and chief of staff, set to be named deputy prime minister and made member of Security Cabinet

New coalition:

94 seats

