

Six-year drug war claims over 50,000 lives

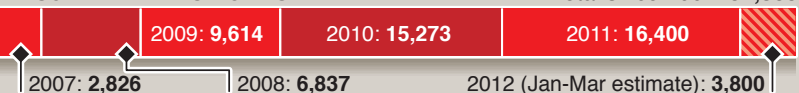

More than 50,000 people have been killed in drug-related violence since President Felipe Calderon launched an all-out war against the nation's drug gangs on taking office in December 2006

MAJOR DRUG CARTEL AREAS

DRUG-RELATED HOMICIDES

Total since 2007: 54,800

Sources: Stratfor, Procuraduría General de la República, WM Consulting

© GRAPHIC NEWS