

A photograph of a herd of elephants in a savanna landscape. In the foreground, two adult elephants are facing each other, with their trunks touching. To the left, a small calf is visible. In the background, another adult elephant is partially visible. The landscape is dry with yellowish-brown grass and scattered trees.

Today in History

June 19, 2000

▲ The world's largest wildlife park was created when borders were removed between the National Parks in South Africa, Zimbabwe, and Mozambique

1846: The first baseball game with set rules was played in New Jersey, U.S.

1981: The UN Security Council condemned Israel's bombing of an Iraqi nuclear reactor after Iraq denied it was for military use

1989: The Polish workers' party Solidarity swept to overwhelming victory in National Assembly elections

2009: Apple launched its iPhone 3G S which sold over one million models in its first three days