

Wimbledon men's champions

Novak Djokovic, who suffered his first Grand Slam defeat for a year at the hands of Rafael Nadal on the clay of Roland Garros, will be hoping to resume last year's dominant form as he returns to Wimbledon grass

RECENT WIMBLEDON CHAMPIONS

2011	Novak Djokovic SRB	▶ 6-4, 6-1, Rafael Nadal ESP 1-6, 6-3
2010	Rafael Nadal ESP	6-3, 7-5, 6-4 Tomas Berdych CZE
2009	Roger Federer SUI	5-7, 7-6, 7-6, Andy Roddick USA 3-6, 16-14
2008	Rafael Nadal ESP	6-4, 6-4, 6-7, Roger Federer SUI 6-7, 9-7
2007	Roger Federer SUI	7-6, 4-6, 7-6, Rafael Nadal ESP 2-6, 6-2

MOST WIMBLEDON TITLES (Open Era)

Pete Sampras	USA	7	1993, 94, 95, 1997, 98, 99, 2000
Roger Federer	SUI	6	2003, 04, 05, 06, 07, 2009
Bjorn Borg	SWE	5	1976, 77, 78, 79, 80
Boris Becker	GER	3	1985, 86, 89
John McEnroe	USA	3	1981, 83, 84

LONGEST MEN'S FINALS AT WIMBLEDON (Minutes)

Three of longest five finals have come in last five years, as endurance becomes crucial part of game play

2007

1980

1982

2009

2008

225

*Federer v
Nadal*

233

*Borg v
McEnroe*

256

*Connors v
McEnroe*

258

*Federer v
Roddick*

288

*Nadal v
Federer*