

Heavy fighting in Syria's largest city

Government forces have launched a ground assault on Syria's largest city Aleppo after 10 days of shelling and sorties by helicopter gunships and fighter jets

Attacks since
July 21

2km
1.25 miles

Refugees: Road north to Turkey controlled by rebel Free Syrian Army

Haydariya

Hanano

Jamiliya

Old Quarter

Sakhour: Violent clashes at entrances to rebel-held neighbourhood

New Aleppo

Saif al-Daula

Bustan al-Qasr

Sukari

Hamdaniya:
Government tanks and armoured personnel carriers

Salaheddine: Helicopter bombardment reported

International Airport

ALEPPO

Population: 2.5 million