

India blackout hits 300m

A massive power cut blacked out a vast swathe of northern India leaving over 300 million people without power in the worst outage for more than a decade

