

Today in History

August 16, 1977

▲ Elvis Presley, the “King of Rock ‘n’ Roll”, died at his Graceland mansion at age 42. He died from heart failure brought on by abuse of prescribed drugs

1832: Wilhelm Wundt, German psychologist and physiologist considered to be the founder of experimental psychology, born

1966: The Declaration of Bogota was signed, calling for economic integration of Latin America

1973: Selman Abraham Waksman, who coined the term antibiotic, died

1974: Turkish and Greek Cypriot forces declared a ceasefire, leaving about one-third of Cyprus in Turkish hands