

Bloody two weeks of “green-on-blue” attacks

The number of ISAF (International Security Assistance Force) soldiers being killed by Afghan troops turning their weapons on them – known as green-on-blue attacks – has risen sharply in recent days

RECENT COALITION GREEN-ON-BLUE CASUALTIES

Green-on-blue attacks now account for over 13% of ISAF casualties in 2012

Farah

AFGHANISTAN

Laghman

Nangarhar

Paktika

Helmand

Kandahar

◀ Body of U.S. Marine Corporal Richard Rivera arrives in Delaware – one of three U.S. soldiers killed by Afghan police officer at Forward Operating Base Delhi, Garmsir on Aug 10