

Women's U.S. Open champions

Flushing Meadows hosts the final Grand Slam of the year and, with the field wide open, it promises to be a competitive end to the season

RECENT U.S. OPEN CHAMPIONS

2011	Samantha Stosur AUS	6-2, 6-3 ▶
	Serena Williams USA
2010	Kim Clijsters BEL	6-2, 6-1
	Vera Zvonareva RUS
2009	Kim Clijsters BEL	7-5, 6-3
	Caroline Wozniacki DEN
2008	Serena Williams USA	6-4, 7-5
	Jelena Jankovic SRB
2007	Justine Henin BEL	6-1, 6-3
	Svetlana Kuznetsova RUS

MOST TITLES (Open Era)

Chris Evert	USA	1975, 76, 77, 78, 80, 82	6
Steffi Graf	GER	1988, 89, 93, 95, 96	5
Martina Navratilova	USA	1983, 84, 86, 87	4
Margaret Court	AUS	3 1969, 70, 73
Billie Jean King	USA	3 1971, 72, 74
Serena Williams	USA	3 1999, 2002, 08
Kim Clijsters	BEL	3 2005, 09, 10

Open Era: Since 1968, U.S. players have won 21 of 43 singles titles – over four times that of any other country

RECENT GRAND SLAM CHAMPIONS: Seven different winners of Grand Slams, with no player winning two since Kim Cjisters won back-to-back majors

	Australian Open	Roland Garros	Wimbledon	U.S. Open
2012	Victoria Azarenka	Maria Sharapova	Serena Williams	Aug 27 – Sep 9
2011	Kim Cjisters	Li Na	Petra Kvitova	Samantha Stosur
2010	Serena Williams	F. Schiavone	Serena Williams	Kim Clijsters
2009	Serena Williams	S. Kuznetsova	Serena Williams	Kim Clijsters