

Today in History

September 14, 1982

▲ Princess Grace of Monaco died in hospital after a car crash. Formerly American film actress Grace Kelly, she starred in movies such as High Noon and Dial M for Murder

1868: The first recorded hole-in-one in golf was scored by Scotsman Tom Morris at Prestwick during the Open

1959: Soviet Luna 2 crash landed on the Moon becoming first man-made object reach a celestial body

2005: Robert Wise, Oscar-winning director of The Sound of Music and West Side Story, died at the age of 91

2007: The first run on a British bank in over a century was triggered following revelations about Northern Rock