

Andy Murray makes history at U.S. Open

■ May 15, 1987: Andrew “Andy” Murray born Glasgow, Scotland

■ Junior career: Orange Bowl champion, 1999. Leaves Scotland to train at Sanchez-Casal Academy in Barcelona, 2002. French Open semi-finalist, 2004. Junior U.S. Open champion 2004

■ 2005: Turns pro. Beats Santiago Ventura 6-1 6-2 at Queen’s Club – his first ATP win

■ 2006: Beats Lleyton Hewitt – his first ATP tournament title, San Jose

■ 2008: First Masters Series title at Cincinnati, beats Novak Djokovic

■ U.S. Open 2008: Loses to Roger Federer in straight sets

■ Australian Open 2010: Loses to Roger Federer in straight sets

■ Australian Open 2011: Loses to Novak Djokovic

■ 2012: Hires former world number one Ivan Lendl as his coach.

Wimbledon 2012: First British man to reach final since 1938, but loses to Roger Federer. Wins gold medal at London Olympics, beating Federer

■ Sep 10, 2012: Andy Murray wins his first Grand Slam title at U.S. Open, beating Novak Djokovic