Syria fighting leaves ancient Aleppo in flames Heavy fighting in the historic city of Aleppo has devastated the UNESCO world heritage site where a blaze triggered by gunfire has raged through the medieval souk. Five of Syria's six world heritage sites have been damaged in 18 moths of conflict View of Citadel from Bab Antakva Bab Antakya gate: WORLD HERITAGE SITES Heavy fighting at UNFSCO entrance to Old City Ancient villages World Heritage Aleppo area Crac des Chevaliers Ancient walled city Palmvra C11th Ummayad SYRIA Grand mosque Damascus Bosra 200km 120 miles 13th Century Citadel: Snipers overlooking city allegedly preventing firefighting efforts 200 metres Fires still burning Souk Al Madina: Up Aqaba to 1,500 shops and Zahrawi Historic mosques historic buildings gutted Historic churches Bab Al Nasr Source: UNESCO Picture: Associated Press © GRAPHIC NEWS