Doubts cast over Japan's nuclear phase-out Only a month after Japan declared that it would 200km stop using nuclear power by the end of the 2030s. 120 miles Prime Minister Yoshihiko Noda's industry minister has said that three approved but unfinished reactors will be completed HOKKAIDO Tomari Status of nuclear plants Sapporo Currently operating Shut down for maintenance Oma or repair, restart not decided Reactor Higashidori 40 percent One reactor Under construction. complete due for completion shut down. second reactor Due to be decommissioned 10 percent complete Shika Kashiwazaki SEA OF Kariwa JAPAN Tsuruga Onagawa Shimane Mihama Fukushima Two reactors shut down. Daiichi Four reactors third reactor Takahama HONSHU damaged. 90 percent Tokyo two shut down complete Nagova Fukushima Genkai Osaka o Daini Tokai One reactor shut down. SHIKOKU one decommissioning Hamaoka KYUSHU Three reactors shut down, two decommissionina Ikata Ohi Two reactors restarted in July. PACIFIC Sendai OCEAN two shut down © GRAPHIC NEWS Sources: Federation of Electric Power Companies of Japan, wire agencies