

Costliest hurricanes to hit the United States

Damage (adjusted to 2010 dollars)

Fatalities

2005	Hurricane Katrina ravages New Orleans	$90.1bn	1,800
1992	Hurricane Andrew devastates Bahamas, Florida, and Louisiana	$41.1bn	43
2008	Hurricane Ike strikes Texas, Mississippi and Florida panhandle	$38.0bn	50
2005	Hurricane Wilma devastates Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, Jamaica, and Florida	$32.3bn	22
2004	Hurricane Ivan hits Caribbean and U.S. eastern seaboard	$20.7bn	92
2004	Hurricane Charley hits Florida	$18.7bn	10
1989	Hurricane Hugo strikes Caribbean, South and North Carolina	$17.5bn	82
2004	Hurricane Frances hits Caribbean, U.S. east coast, and Canada	$13.8bn	7
1988	Hurricane Gilbert strikes Caribbean and Gulf of Mexico states	$10.1bn	433
1998	Hurricane Mitch kills thousands in Honduras, Guatemala, and Nicaragua before reaching Florida	$8.0bn	11,000

Sources: NOAA, National Hurricane Center, news reports

© GRAPHIC NEWS