

Total solar eclipse visible “down under”

A total eclipse of the sun will take place on November 13-14, beginning locally on November 14 west of the International Date Line over northern Australia, and ending on November 13 east of the date line off the western South American coast

Never look directly at solar eclipse with naked eye, binoculars, cameras or telescopes without specialised solar filters

Eclipse occurs when moon obscures all or part of sun

