

Today in History

July 22, 2011

▲ Anders Behring Breivik, a Norwegian right-wing extremist, killed 77 people in attacks in central Oslo and at a political youth camp on the island of Utoeya

1942: The Nazis began to deport the inhabitants of the Warsaw Ghetto. In two months 254,000 died in Treblinka

1999: Chinese authorities outlawed the spiritual sect Falun Gong

2007: The Burj Dubai became the world's tallest building, overtaking Taipei 101 in Taiwan, which had held the record since 2004

2010: The International Court of Justice ruled that Kosovo's unilateral declaration of independence was not