

Israel vows to continue with settlement plans

Israel's decision to approve 3,000 new homes in the West Bank and East Jerusalem has drawn widespread international condemnation after the Palestinians won de facto UN recognition of statehood

