

Tour winner LeMond bids to clean up cycling

Three-time Tour de France winner Greg LeMond will run for the presidency of UCI, the sport's governing body, after accusing the current and previous leadership of corruption during the Lance Armstrong doping scandal

PAST

Hein Verbruggen
UCI President 1991-2005

UCI received $125,000 from Armstrong, allegedly to cover up positive dope test. Remains honorary president

PRESENT

Pat McQuaid
2005 -

Initiated lawsuits against former riders, including LeMond, who accused UCI of complicity in Armstrong doping case

FUTURE?

Greg LeMond
Standing in 2013

11-year feud with Armstrong began in 2001, after questioning his links to notorious physician Dr Michele Ferarri

LEMOND CYCLING CAREER

- 1980: Selected for U.S. Olympic team. Boycott of Moscow Olympics meant he never competed
- 1983: First American to win World Road Race Championship
- 1984: Takes part in his first Tour de France
- 1985: Helps Tour great Bernard Hinault to victory
- 1986: First non-European to win Tour de France. Following disqualifications of both Armstrong and Floyd Landis, he is now only American to keep title
- 1987: Survives shotgun hunting accident
- 1989: Wins Tour de France and World titles
- 1990: Wins third Tour de France without a single stage victory

