

Today in History

February 18, 2003

▲ An arson attack on the subway system in Daegu, South Korea, killed 198 people as flames engulfed two trains at the same station

1953: The first 3-D colour movie, Bwana Devil, opened in New York, heralding the 3-D fad of the 1950s

1977: America's first space shuttle, Enterprise, made its maiden test voyage atop a Boeing 747

1980: In Canada, Pierre Trudeau, leader of the Liberal Party, returned to office as prime minister

2011: The King of Bahrain ordered a dialogue as thousands of protestors occupied the Pearl roundabout, Manama