

French capture Islamists' last Malian town

French forces have secured Kidal, the Islamists' last major stronghold, as the two-week-old mission scored another success in its effort to dislodge the al-Qaeda-linked militants from northern Mali

