

Today in History

February 25, 2013

▲ Park Geun-hye is inaugurated as the first female president of South Korea. She campaigned to tackle unemployment and to re-engage with North Korea

1964: Muhammad Ali, then known as Cassius Clay, won his first world heavyweight boxing title

1972: The Soviet Union's Luna 20 spacecraft returned to Earth with samples of the Moon's surface

2009: Scientists completed mapping Antarctica's subglacial Gamburtsev Mountain Range, the size of the Alps

2011: Thousands of people demonstrated in Amman, Jordan, calling for political reform