

Syria chemical attacks

Opposition sources say President Assad's forces have fired chemical weapons at rebels near Damascus.

The attack comes as the rebels and the government accuse each other of firing a missile carrying chemicals near Aleppo last week

Mar 19, Khan al-Assal: Rocket attack kills 26 people. UN investigating possible use of chemical weapons

Mar 25, Adra: Government forces reportedly fire chemical weapons from multiple rocket launchers at rebels surrounding army base, killing two fighters and injuring 23